

This outstanding tribute to one of the worlds supergroups reproduces the costuming and stage presence of Fleetwood Mac as they take you on a musical journey of classic hits such as 'Dreams', 'Dont Stop', 'Rhiannon', 'Go Your Own Way' and 'Little Lies' just to name a few.

The group who are now drawing huge crowds on the club scene in Australia consists of Peta Clegg as 'Stevie Nicks' in an effortless parody of this exciting singer, Stephen Hearn as bassist Lindsay Buckingham with his typical edgy sound and vocal style, Cath Maunder on keyboards and vocals is totally convincing as Christine McVie and the group is rounded off on drums by Gerard Rowan whose flamboyant style is similar in showmanship to Mick Fleetwood.

Michael Balcombe on guitar is the driving force in the show with his superb playing and arrangement of these classic songs.

The Australian Fleetwood Mac Tribute Show Gypsy are totally entertaining and are not to be missed.
